Re: Docket No. 09-10-09: Annual Review of Connecticut Electric Suppliers' and Electric Distribution Companies' Compliance with Connecticut's Renewable Energy Portfolio Standards in the Year 2008

Dear Mrs. Santopietro:

The Retail Energy Supply Association ("RESA")<sup>1</sup> hereby requests that the Department of Public Utility Control (the "Department") designate RESA as a participant in the above-referenced proceeding.

In this proceeding, the Department has solicited comments regarding the process to be employed in determining compliance by energy suppliers with Renewable Portfolio Standards ("RPS"). RESA is a nonprofit organization and trade association comprised of companies that sell competitive electricity and gas supplies to customers throughout the country, including Connecticut and other New England states that have restructured their electricity markets. RESA companies doing business in Connecticut are required to comply with the state's RPS set forth in Conn. Gen. Stat. § 16-245a(a)(1). Because several RESA members and other energy suppliers have expressed significant concerns with the Department's current process leading to the solicitation of comments for the renewal process, the RESA member companies are substantially and specifically

<sup>1</sup> RESA's members include ConEd Solutions; Direct Energy Services, LLC; Exelon Energy Company; GDF SUEZ Energy Resources NA, Inc; Gexa Energy; Green Mountain Energy Company; Hess Corporation; Integrys Energy Services, Inc.; Just Energy; Liberty Power; RRI Energy; Sempra Energy Solutions LLC. The comments expressed in this filing represent the position of RESA as an organization but may not represent the views of any particular member of RESA.
